IAIP Exercises Week 11

1. Russell and Norvig p.413: *11.5, *11.6
2. Russell and Norvig p.414: 11.11, *11.13,*11.8(level 0 and 1 only)
3. * Argue that the complexity of computing the planning graph is a low order polynomial in the number of actions and literals. (You might want to look at the properties described on p.401)