

CHI 2006 Workshop, Saturday April 22nd 2006:

Entertainment media at home - looking at the social aspects

Program

- 9:00-9:15 Introduction to the workshop and super quick introduction round
- 9:15-10:30 5 minute presentation of each paper. Recapture main points
- 10:30-11:00 Coffee break, meet the other workshops participants
- 11:00-11:45 Discussion in two groups of the current research in the area of entertainment technologies. Identify strengths and weakness of the current research, and areas where additional research is required.
- 11:45-12.00 Short re-capturing of each group's main points
- 12:00-1:00 Discussion of the sociology and anthropology research looking at technology use and adoption terms of gender, family roles, as well as in terms of regional, cultural or racial differences.
- 1:00-2:30 Lunch (at a nice restaurant near the Hyatt)
- 2:30-4:00 Group discussions in smaller groups:
1. Discuss how new media technologies are affecting family structures and gender roles within the home.
2. Discuss how these issues vary across cultures to ensure the output of this workshop is applicable to domestic technology researchers across the world.
3. Discuss the social and cultural implications of new media, including the consequences of time shifting, profiling, and individually tailored media.
- 4:00-4:30 Coffee break
- 4:30-5:00 Presentation of each groups main results (10 minutes each)
- 5:10-5:30 Conclusion and discussion of what we have learned
- 7:30 Dinner at Mesa 14,
1425, rue Bishop corner Sainte Catherine, Metro: Guy Concordia
Walking distance from the Hyatt approximately 20 minutes: walk south-west on Rue St Catherine, take a right when you reach rue Bishop. This is a nice walk going along an area with shops; don't take René-Lévesque, this is a big road with offices.

The Hyatt (workshop)

Mesa 14, Mexican restaurant
Dinner at 7.30 Saturday April 22nd